

Vocabulary Dozen

|    |                  |                                                                     |
|----|------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1  | communication    | using words/ sounds to exchange information.                        |
| 2  | telephone        | a way to communicate over a distance using a wire or radio          |
| 3  | company          | a business which makes money                                        |
| 4  | computer         | an electronic machine which works with information                  |
| 5  | scientist        | a person who is an expert in a science                              |
| 6  | inventor         | a person who invented something                                     |
| 7  | internet         | a computer network                                                  |
| 8  | World wide Web   | lets people use the internet to search for information on web pages |
| 9  | games console    | a small machine which plays video games                             |
| 10 | handheld console | a games console which fits in your hand                             |
| 11 | smartphone       | a mobile phone which works like a small computer                    |
| 12 | develop          | when something becomes better                                       |

Technology Year 2 Autumn 2

Technology has improved over time... so we have seen big changes!

Communication

Technology has helped to develop communication. Alexander Graham Bell a scientist who was born in Scotland made the first telephone call in 1876.

Computer Science

Technology has helped to make big changes in computer science. Tim Berners Lee is an English computer scientist and he invented the World Wide Web – the internet.

Timeline

|                             |                                                                       |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10 th March 1876 | Alexander Graham Bell made the first telephone call to Thomas Watson. |
| 1877                        | The Bell Telephone company was set up in the USA.                     |
| 1936                        | The first programmable computer was invented.                         |
| March 1989                  | Tim Berners Lee invented the World Wide Web                           |
| April 1989                  | Nintendo invented the Gameboy handheld console in Japan.              |
| 1994                        | The original play station was invented in Japan.                      |
| 2007                        | The first iPhone was released.                                        |

Toys

Technology has helped to develop toys over time. From very simple wooden toys to today's complex games consoles.

