

Vocabulary

1	ocean	a very large sea
2	sea	a large area of salt water
3	equator	an imaginary line across the middle of the earth
4	piracy	attacking or stealing at sea
5	captain	the person in command of a ship
6	enemy	a person who is opposed to somebody or something
7	treasure	a large amount of precious or valuable objects
8	compass	an object that shows the direction
9	direction	guidance of a way to go or move
10	coast	land near the sea
11	cliff	a steep rock at the edge of the sea
12	key	gives information to understand a map

There are 7 continents and 5 oceans in the world.

The 7 continents are Asia, Europe, Australia, Antarctica, North America, South America and Africa.

The 5 oceans are Arctic, Pacific, Atlantic, Indian and Antarctic.

Compass directions

Equator

The equator is an invisible line that splits the earth into two. Countries close to the equator are hotter.

Famous Pirates

Blackbeard

He was a pirate in the 1700s. He had a beard that went down to his waist. He terrorized the Atlantic Ocean for 2 years. He sailed on his ship 'Queen Anne's Revenge' and attacked other ships. He died in 1718.

Anne Bonny

She is one of the most famous women pirates. She was a pirate from Ireland who travelled with her father to North America in the 1700s. At 16 she ran away with a pirate and she joined a pirate crew. She died in 1782.

